Every Thursday at 7PM in the church hall.

Introduction to the four Gospels:

In preparation for the Advent and Christmas Seasons the focus will be on chapters one and two of Matthew and Luke's Gospels.

Remember to Study

5. St. Vincent de Paul: Money put in the poor box in the back of church will be forwarded to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Your continued donation of food items is also appreciated.

Sunday Mass obligation dispensation lifted for Catholics in the Diocese of Wilmington

The Most Reverend W. Francis Malooly, Bishop Emeritus and Apostolic Administrator of the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington, has lifted the dispensation, thereby reinstating the Sunday and Holy Day Mass obligation for Catholics in the Diocese of Wilmington, effective June 2021

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16

Elijah asked a widow for a cup of water and a piece of bread. She told him she was almost out of flour, and that she and her son would soon starve. Elijah told her not to be afraid, as God had told him the jar of flour would not go empty. So she did as he had asked and prepared bread from the last of her flour. As God had said, her jar did not go empty, and she and her son had plenty to eat.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28

The high priests entered the sanctuary each year and offered a sacrifice, but not a sacrifice of their own blood. Just as people die once and are judged, Christ was offered up once for the sins of many.

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

Jesus expressed disgust over the hypocrisy of some of the scribes for wanting special treatment from the people. He watched the wealthy put large contributions into the collection box, but explained that what they gave was surplus wealth, and not a real sacrifice. He told them the biggest donation was a small amount from a widow, because she had given up the only money that she had to live on.

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time November 7, 2021

“Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the Lord, the God of Israel says, ‘The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the Lord sends rain upon the earth.’ She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well... ‘Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury... for she from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.’”

The old and new testaments make us quite aware of responsibility toward the poor and marginalized, widows, orphans and aliens. Today we find both Elijah and Jesus reflecting upon women who are now deprived of their husbands.

Every parish community can provide names and faces of women who are both in need, or who make great contributions through prayer, presence or service. What a blessing, yet we sometimes overlook or ignore their state in life, as vital members of our communities. We pray for them and thank God for their presence.

The women of the scriptures today gave of their last jar of flour and drops of oil and were provided for by God. The two cents contributed to the temple treasury far exceeded the huge amounts provided by the surplus of some.

May we express our gratitude for all gifts given from the heart and provide especially for those in need.
