Attention Parishioners:

1. After Labor Day Saturday evening Mass will begin at 5 p.m. with confessions 4:15-4:45.

Sunday Morning Mass will continue to begin at 11 a.m. until further notice.

2. OLGC's Religious Education Program began on September 12th from 9:30 to 10:30. Please contact Denise Tomey, CRE

OLGC religious education program, at 410-943-6242 with any questions or concerns.

3. Scripture Study

Every Thursday (beginning October 7) at 7PM in the church hall.

Introduction to the four Gospels:

In preparation for the Advent and Christmas Seasons the focus will be on chapters one and two of Matthew and Luke's Gospels.

4. Bakeless Bake Sale: Letters have been mailed for our Bakeless Bake Sale. If you did not receive one it could be because our records are not up to date. If you could call the office with your current information, it would be appreciated. There are extra letters in the back of church. Thank you for your generosity.

5. Please join the Rosary Rally on Saturday October 16, 2021 at 12:00 noon on the lot next to Biad Hall. The United States is in great need of prayers. We must ask God to save America through the Rosary. This Rally will be one of over 20,000 rallies held that day all across the United States. It is nationally organized by America Needs Fatima.

6. Mass is in the church. Please wear a mask if you are not vaccinated. If you feel ill, please do not attend.

7. St. Vincent de Paul: Money put in the poor box in the back of church will be forwarded to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Your continued donation of food items is also appreciated.

Sunday Mass obligation dispensation lifted for Catholics in the Diocese of Wilmington

The Most Reverend W. Francis Malooly, Bishop Emeritus and Apostolic Administrator of the Catholic Diocese of Wilmington, has lifted the dispensation, thereby reinstating the Sunday and Holy Day Mass obligation for Catholics in the Diocese of Wilmington, effective June 26, 2021.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

This poem discusses how the spirit of wisdom is far more beautiful than any riches could be. All gold is no more than sand when compared to the importance of wisdom, which often leads people to the other good things in life.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13

God's perception of people is called "sharper than any two-edged sword." God is able to know the thoughts and feelings of all his people. We can hide nothing from him, and will need to account for all he has seen in us.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

A man asks Jesus how he can share in everlasting life. Jesus tells him to sell his possessions and travel with them. The man refuses and Jesus tells his disciples how difficult it is for a rich person to enter heaven if they are too concerned with their possessions. The disciples remind Jesus that they gave up everything for him, but he assures them they will be rewarded with everlasting life.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY

by Rev. William J. Reilly

Most Holy Name Catholic Church, Garfield, NJ

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 10, 2021

"As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him and asked, 'Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?'... 'You know the commandments'... He replied, 'Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth.' Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, 'You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have rich treasure in heaven, then come, and follow me.'"

The scene is easy to visualize, the conversation clear and simple, but the challenge is awesome. Am I willing to take the place of the man, approaching Jesus and asking the same question? Like Him I can probably respond that I too try to observe the ten commandments or the two great commandments of love of God and neighbor.

Perhaps Jesus is indicating that I too am lacking one thing. What is it? The man was asked to forfeit his riches and treasures. What is my one thing, what is my treasure which can be the barrier to eternal life?

Jesus looks at me today and He loves me too.
