“Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow. The same Everlasting Father, who takes care of you today, will take care of you tomorrow. He will either shield you from suffering, or give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations.”

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“The Lord was pleased that Solomon made this request. So, God said to him: ‘Because you have asked for this – not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right – I do as you requested. I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come, no one to equal you.’”

How frequently the expression, ‘the wisdom of Solomon’ describes someone who pauses, thinks things through, and then decides. This Old Testament giant individual offers a model. As I approach the Lord in my prayer today, He wants to know my care and need. ‘Ask something of me and I will give it to you.’

What is my response, my need, my care? How deep is my faith in the Lord that He listens or even cares? My response reflects the trust I place in my God. ‘Jesus, I trust in you.’ Please hear me. ‘Give your servant an understanding heart.’
